

Welcome to your new Allotment!

Let us help give some ideas on what to do now

Month by month,
seed by seed!

A HELPFUL GUIDE

ANDOVER ALLOTMENTS

Winter

December, January, February

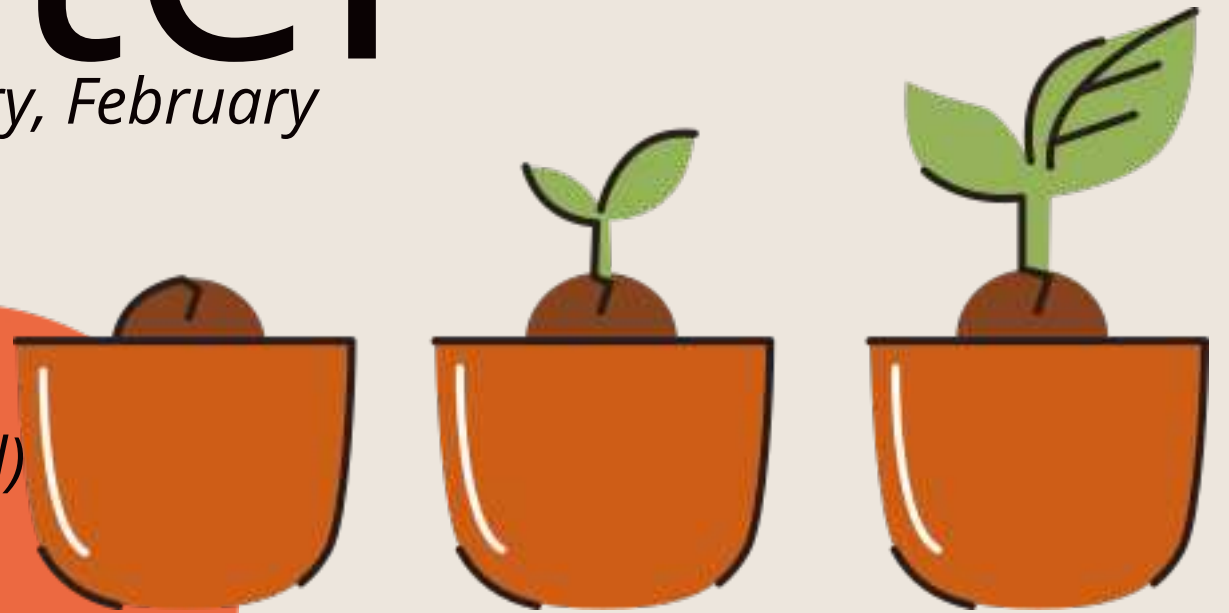

January

Garlic & shallots

Onions (inside from seed)

Bare rooted trees & bushes

Dig your plot over if not frozen solid!

December

Tidy your plot ready for spring

Garlic

Onions

February

Good application of manure or compost

Prune your fruit bushes & trees

early peas & broad beans

plant your fruit canes and raspberries

Jerusalem artichokes

cover plot to warm soil

Spring

March, April, May

March

Potatoes, Beetroot & Broad beans

Lettuce, radish & Parsnips

Sprouts, leeks & Kale

Beware of Pigeons trying to dig up your onions!

Cover if you can...

Early Turnips

May

Keep on top of the weeding

Bindweed and dandelions... beware!

French beans, Runner Beans & Chicory

Pumpkins & Squashes

Spring onions, courgettes & marrows

April

Be generous with your compost around your fruit trees this month

Asparagus, Cauliflower & Chard

Broccoli, Cabbage & Khol rabi

Cover your carrots - othwerwise the carrot rot fly will gobble them up

Rocket

Sweetcorn (cover up)

Summer

June, July, August

June

Keep an eye on the Aphids, Whitefly & Red Spider mite

Runner & Dwarf Beans

Weed, weed, weed!

August

Ventilate your Greenhouses & Polytunnels well during the hot weather

Lettuce & Spinach

Savoy Cabbage & Hardy Kales

July

Leeks

Cabbages, Peas & French Beans

Spring Cabbage, Chicory & Chinese Cabbage

Beetroot, Radishes & Carrots

Generously water your crops

Autumn

September, October, November

October

Garlic

Now is an ideal to have a good prune back of all your fruit trees & bushes

Check on your Brussel Sprouts!

Beet Leaf Spinach

Dig your plot over

Chinese Cabbage

September

Autumn onion sets

The bulk of your harvest will come home now, enjoy!

Sew some green manure to give the soil a needed boost for next years crops

Spring Cabbages

Use your compost from your composting bin!

November

Broad Beans & Hardy Peas

Purple Basil & Early Chillies

Horseradish

