

ANDOVER TOWN COUNCIL

Powers and Duties of Local Councils

Local Councils have a wide range of powers but very few duties.

Duties

A duty is an activity that must be carried out (Mandatory), e.g., local councils must appoint a chairman and a clerk.

Powers

Statutory powers, granted by Parliament, give local councils the choice or opportunity to take action and are therefore discretionary.

The powers vested in Parish, Town, and Community Councils by Acts of Parliament are summarised below as a guide to Councillors and others. Each description is brief and intended as a general indication. It is not a complete list of every single power and duty.

Like all powers given to public bodies, the powers of local councils are defined in detail in legislation and may include a requirement to obtain the consent of another body (e.g., approval of the County Council to provide a car park).

Local Councils must also exercise their powers subject to the provisions of general law (e.g., planning permission is necessary for a sports pavilion).

Table of details

The following table describes the powers and duties held by local councils for a number of functions. It also provides details of the regulations under which statutory provisions are made. Information on all these details should be in the hands of the parish council Clerks.

Where a function is marked with an asterisk (*) a council also has the power to give financial assistance to another person or body performing the same function.
