

Andover Town Council

To approve the Code of Conduct.

Item
No.
15

Produced for: Full Council

By: Town Clerk

Date of Report: 10 Jun 2024

Background:

- The Code of Conduct currently in use is based on a template from 2012.
- A newer version based on the Local Government Association Model Councillor Code of Conduct was produced by the Town Clerk for review in May 2023, but councillors did not approve this.
- A Code of Conduct is used to measure councillors' behaviour against, and will be referred to by the Borough Monitoring Officer in case of complaints.
- The Town Clerk believes that using the same Code of Conduct wording as the Borough Council would allow for faster review of any complaints made, and would standardise the expectations made of councillors.
- The Borough Council's Code of Conduct is detailed below, and logical amendments have been made as necessary.

Members' Code of Conduct (Revised and Adopted 15 April 2015)

Part 1: General Provisions

- 1.1 This Code is adopted pursuant to the Council's statutory duty to promote and maintain high standards of Conduct by Members of the Council. It complies with the requirements of Section 28 of the Localism Act 2011 and is consistent with the principles set out in that section and which are listed in paragraph 1.5 below.
- 1.2 This Code applies to you being a holder of public office as a Member of Test Valley Borough Council ("the Council") when acting in your role as a Member.
- 1.3 This Code is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all the legal and constitutional obligations placed on Members of this Council. It is your responsibility to comply with the following provisions of this Code as well as other legal obligations beyond the scope of this Code.
- 1.4 In the interests of transparency and openness and in accordance with the requirements of the Localism Act 2011, a copy of the Register of Members' Interests is published on the Council's website, and is available for public inspection at the Council's offices at all reasonable hours.
- 1.5 This Code is based on and consistent with the following principles:
- SELFLESSNESS
Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits.
- INTEGRITY
Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.
- OBJECTIVITY

In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public.

OPENNESS

Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

HONESTY

Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

LEADERSHIP

Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

- 4.1 You must, within 28 days of taking office as a Member or Co-opted Member of the Council, notify the Council's Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interests as defined by regulations made by the Secretary of State (as set out at Part 3 of this Code), where the pecuniary interest is yours, your spouse's or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of somebody with whom you are living with as a husband or wife, or as if you were civil partners.
- 4.2 You must also, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new disclosable pecuniary interest, or change thereto, notify the Council's Monitoring Officer of such new or changed interest.
- 4.3 If you have a disclosable pecuniary interest included on the Register of Members' Interests in any matter to be considered at any meeting of the Council, its Cabinet or Committees, at which you are present (even though you are not a member of the committee and are seated with the public), you must disclose that interest. Such an interest should be disclosed at the commencement of consideration of the business or when the interest becomes apparent. You do not need to disclose details of the interest itself unless in exercising your discretion you choose to do so.
- 4.4 If a disclosable pecuniary interest has not been entered onto the Council's Register of Interests, then you must also disclose the interest to any meeting of the Council, its Committees or the Cabinet at which you are present where you have such an interest in any matter being considered. Such an interest should be disclosed at the commencement of consideration of the business or when the interest becomes apparent. You should disclose the existence and the nature of the interest to the meeting. Following disclosure of a disclosable pecuniary interest not on the Council's Register or the subject of pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of such interest within 28 days, beginning with the date of disclosure.
- 4.5 Unless a dispensation has been granted in respect of a matter in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, you may not:
- participate in any discussion related to that matter;
 - vote on that matter; or
 - discharge any function related to that matter.
- 4.6 As soon as it becomes apparent that you have such an interest you must withdraw from the room where the meeting considering the business is being held, and must not seek improperly to influence a decision about that business.
- 4.7 4.7 If acting as a single Portfolio Holder you may not take any further steps in relation to the matter other than for the purpose of arranging for the matter to be dealt with otherwise than by yourself.

Part 5: Personal Interests

- 5.1 You have a "personal interest" in an item of business where it relates to or is likely to affect any of the following bodies of which you are a member: a public or charitable body, any body to which the Member has been appointed by the authority, any political party, trade union or other body one of whose principal purposes is to influence public opinion or policy.

5.2 You also have a “personal interest” (but which is not a disclosable pecuniary interest) in an item of business or decision affecting the well being or financial position of:

- a member of your family, or their close friends or close associates; or
- your close friends or close associates;

where the affect upon them might reasonably be regarded as greater than that on other council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the authority’s area.

5.3 Where you believe you have a “personal interest” under 5.1 or 5.2 you should also consider whether a reasonable person might think that your personal interest is so significant that it would impair your ability to judge the public interest. You should seek the advice of the Monitoring Officer in these circumstances before participating in the meeting or business of the Council.

5.4 Where you have a “personal interest” in any business of the Council you shall disclose that interest at any meeting of the authority, committee or sub committee, where you consider that interest to be relevant to an item of business being considered at that meeting. The disclosure shall be made at the commencement of the meeting, or when the interest becomes apparent, and shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The requirement to declare a personal interest only applies where you are aware or ought reasonably to be aware of the existence of the personal interest.

5.5 Disclosure of a personal interest does not affect your ability to participate in a discussion or vote on the relevant item.

5.6 Where you have a personal interest, if you consider, having taken advice, that you should not participate in the business being considered, you should leave the room where the business is being considered after exercising any right to speak which a member of the public would have (and subject to complying with any such requirements as to registration)

Part 6: Sensitive Interests

6.1 These are interests where you consider that disclosure of the details of a disclosable pecuniary interest or a personal interest could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation.

6.2 A sensitive disclosable pecuniary interest or a change to such an interest must be notified to the Monitoring Officer.

6.3 If the Monitoring Officer agrees, copies of the register that are made available for inspection and any published version of the register will exclude details of the interest which shall be recorded as withheld under Section 32(2) of the Localism Act 2011.

6.4 The requirement to declare such an interest at meetings shall be discharged simply by stating that you have a disclosable pecuniary interest or a personal interest in the matter concerned. You are not required to disclose the detail of the interest

Part 7: Offences

7.1 It is a criminal offence to:

- (i) fail to notify the Monitoring Officer of any Disclosable Pecuniary Interest within 28 days of election.
- (ii) fail to disclose a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest at a meeting if it is not on the register.
- (iii) fail to notify the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest that is not on the register that you have disclosed to a meeting.
- (iv) participate in any discussion or vote on a matter in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest.
- (v) as an executive member discharging a function acting alone, and having a disclosable pecuniary interest in such a matter, failing to notify the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of the interest.
- (vi) knowingly or recklessly providing information that is false or misleading in notifying the Monitoring Officer of a disclosable pecuniary interest or in disclosing such interest to a meeting

The criminal penalties available to a court are to impose a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and disqualification from being a Councillor for up to 5 years.
