

PRIVACY STATEMENT – 2023 (March 2023)

INTRODUCTION

This is a statement to inform you about all the information we record about you. It sets out the conditions under which we may process any information that we collect from you or that you provide to us. Any information that identifies you ("Personal Information") is used to provide you with the services you require.

We regret that if there are one or more points below that you are not happy with us holding, we may have obligations or other reasons to hold the data under UK law.

We understand that all visitors to our websites, customers and clients are entitled to know that their personal data will not be used for any purpose other than the lawful basis upon which it was provided for.

We undertake to preserve the confidentiality of all information that you provide to Andover Town Council, except where our business needs as outlined below all for us to share the data.

Our processes comply with UK law, including that required by the GDPR.

The law requires us to tell you about your rights and our obligations to you in regard to the processing and control of your personal data. We do this now by requesting that you read the information provided at www.knowyourprivacyrights.org.

Except as set out in below, we do not share, sell or disclose any personal data to any other organisation or third party.

HOW DATA IS HELD

Data is held in either on our internal database and finance system, "Edge" or in our Office 365 applications, including Outlook, Word and Excel. Bank account details are additionally held with our bank.

We use the data to send you Emails, Newsletters, Yearly Invoices, Receipts, Follow-Up letters, Responses to queries or official Notices.

Paper files are held for Tenancy Agreements, which are held for 6 years after the expiry of the agreement. We intend to phase out paper copies wherever possible.

If you contact the Town Council via email or our website, your personal data i.e. email address, will be kept for the time it takes to answer your enquiry, unless another lawful reason becomes apparent, which we will notify you of, after which time it will be destroyed.

BASIS FOR PROCESSING INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The law requires us to determine under which of the six defined basis, we process different categories of your personal information. If a basis on which we process your personal information is no longer relevant, your personal information will be destroyed.

If the basis changes then as required by law, we will notify you of the change and of any new basis under which your personal data is being held.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – 2023 (March 2023)

THERE ARE SIX REASONS TO HOLD PERSONAL DATA

(a) Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.

(b) Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.

(c) Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).

(d) Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.

(e) Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

(f) Legitimate interests: the processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party, unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. (This cannot apply if you are a public authority processing data to perform your official tasks.)
